

MAYSVILLE LEDGER

MAYSVILLE, KY. FRIDAY, AUGUST 2, 1895.

FOURTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY. FRIDAY, AUGUST 2, 1895.

ONE CENT.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notions" free any more than a merchant can afford to give his customer free goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Calls

upon The Ledger for free notices have become so numerous that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Meetings, excursions, fairs, or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and for ordinary notices, resolutions of respect, etc. The Ledger will charge FIVE CENTS A LINE, and hereafter this will be the invariable rule. This, however, is a concession.

Does Not Include

notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for business notices in The Ledger is 10 cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders an insertion and inserts it in the paper. "I'll tell you when to take it out," he says to the bookkeeper. But he forgets all about it. The notice runs for two months—30 times—the bill is $15.00. When he finds it out there is a "kick" and a controversy, followed probably by an angry retort. Now, to obviate this trouble, "We" printed notices will be accepted hereafter. Let's have a definite agreement at the outset and the termination will be pleasant all around.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 5 o'clock in the morning of each day.

If you have friends visiting you, or you are going away on a visit, please "drop" a note to this effect.

RUGGLES CAMPGROUND.

Sunday Will Be The Best Day of The Present Meeting.

If you desire to spend a glad and delightful day, be sure and go to Ruggles Campground on Sunday.

Now at Ruggles Campgrounds there are twenty Ministers present, and Miss Anna L. Cartwright, who assists in all the evangelistic work. Professor Crabb of Ashland, assisted by a choir of twenty-five voices, makes it well worth the trip.

That we have ever heard of these noted grounds.

Rev. W. H. W. Reese of the F. A. and Southern Educational Society will preach at 10:30 a. m. Sunday. Come everyone and hear this able Divine.

Miss Cartwright will have charge of the 3 o'clock service Sunday evening for young people, but all ages are invited to hear this great Evangelist. Surely the Lord is in this elect land and consecrated woman.

The grounds have been greatly improved. The grove is surely the prettiest in that whole section of the county. The Lord has done great things for us in this meeting, whereof we are glad.

The Directors have thrown the gates open free of charge for ten days of the meeting, only four days with small entrance fees.

This meeting is not carried on to make money, but to do good. Come through with us and we will do that good, for the Lord has spoken good concerning Israel.

TERRIBLE TUMBLE!

COVINGTON DIDN'T GET INTO THE GAME.

They Had a Dandy Tie-ler, But the Outfielders Ought to Have Had Baskets.

The Stars got their first in the sixth. Lally flew out to Reiman. Schroeder tossed one over second for a base. Sommers scratched to VanWinkle, who threw wild and Schroeder scored. Glenn flew out to Wadsworth, who doubled Sommers via Tenley. Their second was in the eighth. Percival flew out to Cox. Lally connected for three, and scored on Heiman's muf of a high fly.

FIRE DISASTER

The Result of Cloudbursts on the Casper Mountain.

The Pleasure Resort Head of Garden Creek, Wyo., Swept Away.

Original Site of the Hotel Reached Twenty Feet Below the Surface of the Head of the Garden Creek.

CASPER, WYO., Aug. 2.—A terrible cloudburst occurred south of this city on Casper mountain, at the head of Garden creek, Wednesday night.

The creek is about seven miles long and is lined with campers. Near the head of the creek is a summer resort frequented by local people, and is credited with being one of the most beautiful spots in Central Wyoming.

The first thing the flood reached was the pleasure resort at the head of the creek. At this point all the buildings were crushed and swept away and the original site of the hotel at this point is buried beneath twenty or more feet deep.

From here the water followed the course of the creek and demolished everything in its path, sliding down from water marks a volume of water forty feet high and thirty rods wide must have passed a narrow defile about two miles from the mountain proper.

Without warning the great flood of water in its rush down the side of the mountain found many campers up and down the creek, and in a few minutes about ready to retire for the night.

N. Newby and his family had retired for the night, when all at once they were surrounded with water and a race for life commenced. Newby says that he heard his wife scream for help, grabbed for her and in a few minutes the next second he was being carried by a great rush of water. That was the last he saw of his wife and baby.

Newby grabbed his gun and ran up a tree and after floating about forty rods was thrown on a bank. Mrs. Newby was found Thursday morning beneath a pile of debris about fifty feet. The boy has not been found.

Near the Newby camp was camped Samuel Harrison, an Allamog, and his two children. They were in the flood and carried away by the mad waters. The bodies of the children were recovered Thursday morning.

Some idea of the force of the torrent can be formed from the fact that in the first two miles the water was so high that it was impossible to find the lodges of rock to be found. These lodges are twenty-five feet high. In the first one are boulders from the mountain, and the second one is a pile of trees. Trees two feet in diameter were torn up and carried down the stream. The tents and wagons of all the campers up and down the creek were destroyed and at least fifty campers escaped with nothing but their sleeping garments. Four and a half miles in being sent to the fatalities by the citizens of Casper.

Japan Draws the Line Against Further Subjection

To the Demands of Russia, France, Germany and Other Powers.

The Will Go to War Before She Will Yield the Advantage She Has in the Peninsula.

Washington, Aug. 2.—The diplomatic corps in Washington is watching with especial interest the settlement of the question of the evacuation of Port Arthur by the Japanese, in view of the demand which Russia has made for the evacuation of the entire Liao Tung peninsula without reference to China's fulfillment of her part of the Shimoda treaty obligations. It is made quite clear at the Japanese legation here that Japan will not accede to this demand, if really made without a vigorous protest.
